

If We'll Look for Peace

Don Gnecco

If We'll Look for Peace in the rising sun,
If We'll Look for Peace, altogether we are one.

If we'll sing of peace, all in unison,
If we'll sing for peace, altogether we are one.

Holding hands, we'll understand,
It starts with you and me.
Together we can sing in harmony.
And if all the world could hear one voice when we sing our song –
We'll just begin and they'll all sing along.

Modulation

If We'll Look for Peace in the rising sun,
If We'll Look for Peace, altogether we are one.
Holding hands, we'll understand,
It starts with you and me.
There is hope, If We'll Look for Peace.
There is hope, If We'll Look for Peace.
