

You're Not Alone Anymore

Don Gnecco

When your life seems to be in darkness,
Swallowed up by your busy days,
Just maybe you feel disconnected
In so many ways.
When it feels like you won't see daylight,
When the walls seem to close in tight,
Just look for the wisdom inside you
And connect with your inner Light.

*Look to the Light shining inside.
Look to the Light and
You're Not Alone Anymore.*

When the days start to run together,
When you feel like you're falling apart,
And maybe you long for another
With a loving heart,
When it feels like you live in darkness,
When your days seem to feel like night,
Just look for the goodness inside you
And connect with your inner Light.

*Look to the Light shining inside.
Look to the Light and
You're Not Alone Anymore.
No, You're Not Alone Anymore.*
