

Love Lifts Me Up High

Don Gnecco

When I look up to the mountains
Standing tall against the sky,
My heart is filled with wonder,
And my thoughts are lifted high.

When I hear a clap of thunder
And the rain begins to fall,
I am awed by all creation,
By the wonder of it all.

*Love Lifts Me Up High.
Loving's all we need to do.
Love Lifts Me Up High.
And the miracle of life comes shining through.*

When I hear a newborn baby,
Smell a flower in the spring.
I'm reminded of the wonder,
And my heart begins to sing (to sing), and

Modulation

*Love Lifts Me Up High.
Loving's all we need to do.
Love Lifts Me Up High.
There is love in ev'rything we see and do.
There is love in ev'rything we see and do.*
