

Your Love Has Changed My Life

Don Gnecco

I have had my share of troubles, and I live from day to day.
And I've had help from friends along the way
Who have helped me to see just who I'm meant to be.
I'll think of you and hope you'll hear me say:

*Somehow I know that you are always at my side.
I know that you believe in me.
You give me hope that I can make it if I try.
And thanks to you, Your Love Has Changed My Life.*

When I'm tired of all life's hassles, when my mind is so confused,
I need to take some time to get away.
And I know in my heart, that before the day can start,
I'll think of you and hope you'll hear me say:

*Somehow I know that you are always at my side.
I know that you believe in me.
You give me hope that I can make it if I try.
And thanks to you, Your Love Has Changed My Life.*
