

Here We Are Dancing

Don Gnecco

Here We Are Dancing, you're all dressed in white.
A beautiful bride, a father's delight.
Look and you'll see there's a tear in my eye.
You're on your own, you can fly.

Now you're all grown up, today' you're a wife.
I wish you happiness all through your life.
We'll never know just what life has in store;
But I couldn't ask for more.

Here We Are Dancing together,
Happy on your wedding day.
Here We Are Dancing together.
You look so beautiful; you're all a-glow,
Sweetheart just know love you so.

I see you're happy, your eyes all a-glow,
It's been so wonderful watching you grow.
You were my little girl, now you're his wife.
Happy in your new life.

Here We Are Dancing together,
Happy on your wedding day.
Here We Are Dancing together.
You look so beautiful; you're all a-glow,
Sweetheart just know love you so.

Instrumental

You look so beautiful; you're all a-glow,
Sweetheart just know love you so.
You look so beautiful; you're all a-glow,
Sweetheart just know love you so.
