

A New Beginning

Don Gnecco

There are days when my heart's heavy,
When I don't know just how I feel.
When my whole world seems topsy-turvy.
Deep down inside my fear is real.

There are times when I am weary,
When all around it all feels new.
An unknown path now lies before me.
I need to face what I must do.

*In my life everything feels new.
Everywhere I go, everything I do.
Everything I hear, everything I see:
A new beginning shines from the light inside of me.*

Modulation

*In my life everything feels new.
Everywhere I go, everything I do.
Everything I hear, everything I see:
A new beginning shines from the light inside of me.*

*In my life everything feels new.
Everywhere I go, everything I do.
Everything I hear, everything I see:
A new beginning shines from the light inside of me.
A new beginning shines from the light inside of me.*
