

If You Can Believe

Don Gnecco

One day ev'rything your heart needs,
One day ev'rything you do will
One day somehow fall in place for you.
If You Can Believe.

One day things will come together.
One day you will come to see that
One day we'll have peace and harmony.
If you can just believe.

In our darkest days
When we feel we are alone,
Just believe, and all the things we need will then be known.

Modulation

One day ev'rything we wish for,
One day ev'rything we see will
One day be a living tapestry.
If you can just believe.

Love binds us all together, hearts in unity.
Together we can weather all adversity, and

One day we'll all come together,
One day we'll all come to see that
One day we can live in harmony.
If you can just believe.
If You Can Believe.
