

You Are My Joy

Don Gnecco

When you were just a babe
I held you in my arms.
You brought me joy and wonder
With all your child-like charms.

Your eyes were full of sparkles,
They made me glow with pride.
Your presence a constant reminder
Of the love for life I have inside.

*You give me joy, you bring me sunshine.
To see a side of me.
The time we have with one another
Will bring forth the light the world was meant to see.*

Your childhood days are gone, now,
But the magic's still aglow.
The person that's inside of you
Is the one I've come to know.

Your being here has brought me
Gifts beyond compare.
And knowing you's the greatest one
I've gotten anywhere.

*You give me joy, you bring me sunshine.
To see a side of me.
The time we have with one another
Will bring forth the light the world was meant to see.*

*You give me joy, you bring me sunshine
To see a side of me.
The time we have with one another
Will bring for the light the world was meant to see.
You are, You Are My Joy.
You are, you are, You Are My Joy!*
