

I Won't Ever Stop Loving You

Don Gnecco

It seems that there are always so many things to do.
When I wander off my path I can depend on you.
In my darkest hours you held me as I cried.
You are always there for me, forever at my side.

*Knowing that you love me tells me all is right.
I know I can always count on you.
Knowing that you love me, I know this is true:
I Won't Ever Stop Loving You.*

I've found that there is so much for everyone to know.
When I'm feeling overwhelmed you show me where to go.
Then in my confusion I see things so clear.
You are always there for me and you are always near.

*Knowing that you love me tells me all is right.
I know I can always count on you.
Knowing that you love me, I know this is true:
I Won't Ever Stop Loving You.*

Bridge:

I feel my heart can fly.
And with your love it soars so high; so high.

I've waited 'til now to tell you what you mean to me.
Loving you has changed my life and who I want to be.
Like an age-old story, my dream is coming true.
My secret to happiness is simply loving you.

*Knowing that you love me tells me all is right.
I know I can always count on you.
Knowing that you love me, I know this is true:
I Won't Ever Stop Loving You.*

*Knowing that you love me tells me all is right.
I know I can always count on you.
Knowing that you love me, I know this is true:
I Won't Ever Stop Loving You.*
